Matthew 24.36-44

In many parts of Ethiopia, there is still a strong culture of blood vengeance. This does not always end in death, but the desire for revenge is big and can easily escalate smaller disputes into serious conflict.

Today we celebrate Jesus as King – but a King unlike any other. Jesus is taken out to the place of the skull – the rubbish tip outside the city walls – and crucified.

In the midst of this, Jesus says, 'Father, forgive them.' He does not ask for or seek revenge.

And then he promises forgiveness and paradise today, now, to the penitent thief. The contrast with the place of crucifixion could not be greater. Instead of decay and death, there would be the smell of beautiful plants and flowers, shade from the relentless sun and the sound of running water.

This passage urges us all to turn to Him again, today, and to know His forgiveness.

Sunday 21st November 2010

Christ the King

Prayer For Today.

Eternal God,
you exalted Jesus Christ to rule over all things,
and have made us instruments of his kingdom:
by your Spirit empower us to love the unloved,
and to minister to all in need,
then at the last bring us to your eternal realm
and may worship and adore you for ever;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

St Saviour's Cathedral

Thank you for not parking on the roadway surrounding the Cathedral. This makes it difficult or impossible for other vehicles to pass by without going onto the path or garden. What is more concerning is that vehicles parked on the road will block access for emergency vehicles and in emergency situations. Please use the car park provided. Short stops for setting down or dropping off are acceptable. Thank you for your co-operation,

The Dean and Wardens

MINISTRY OF HOSPITALITY

As you leave the Cathedral look at the window in the foyer, it is titled "I am the light of the World". It was placed by the family of a parishioner, Kitty Worth, in 1986.

Can you see anything in the window that indicates the maker of the window? His name is Phillip Handel.

Would people check the roster for the rest of November? Thanks for your help.

If you would like to join this ministry contact Debbie at the Office 48212206.

We will be looking for cash donations to assist with the transport costs of the third container. School books, writing material and garden tools are needed.
