Introit Hymn

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

We are pilgrims on a journey
and companions on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear.

I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh I'll laugh with you;
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven
we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together
of Christ's love and agony.

Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to
let you be my servant too.

Richard Gillard
1953-

Sentence

Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and the servant of all.

Mark 9.35

Collect

God and Father of all,
you have taught us through your Son that the last will be first ,and have made a little child the measure of your kingdom;
of give us the wisdom from above , so that we may understand that in your sight the one who serves is the greatest of all.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and in the unity of the Holy Spirit ,One God ,for ever and ever. Amen

Acknowledgement of Country

We acknowledge the triune God, the Creator of heaven and earth and His ownership of all things. (Psalm 24:1) We recognise that He gave stewardship of these lands upon which we meet to the First Nations Peoples of this country (Acts 17:26). We acknowledge the cultures of our First Nations Peoples and are thankful for the community that we share together now. We pay our respects to the people of this land and their elders/leaders, both past and present, and those emerging.

Jeremiah 11:18-20

It was the LORD who made it known to me, and I knew;
then you showed me their evil deeds.
But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter.
And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying,
'Let us destroy the tree with its fruit,
let us cut him off from the land of the living,
so that his name will no longer be remembered!'
But you, O LORD of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind,
let me see your retribution upon them,
for to you I have committed my cause.

Psalm 1

James Turle (1802-1882)

- 1 Blessed are they who have not walked in the counsel | of the · un|godly:
nor followed the way of sinners,
nor taken their | seat a|mongst the | scornful.
- 2 But their delight is in the | law of · the | Lord:
and on that law will they | ponder | day and | night.
- 3 They are like trees planted beside | streams of | water:
that yield their | fruit in | due | season.
- 4 Their leaves also | shall not | wither:
and look, whatever they | do, | it shall | prosper.
- 5 As for the ungodly,* it is not | so with | them:
they are like the | chaff · which the | wind | scatters.
- 6 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand up | at the | judgement:
nor sinners in the congre|gation | of the | righteous.
- 2nd* †7 For the Lord cares for the | way of · the | righteous:
half but the way of the un|godly | shall | perish.

James 3.1-12

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits.

How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

Hear the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
fill me with life anew,
that I may love what thou dost love,
and do what thou wouldst do.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
until my heart is pure;
until with thee I will one will,
to do and to endure.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
till I am wholly thine;
until this earthly part of me
glows with thy fire divine.

Breathe on me, Breath of God:
so shall I never die,
but live with thee the perfect life
of thine eternity.

Edwin Hatch 1835-1889

Mark 9.30-37

They went on from there and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, 'The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the way?' But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Baptism Procession

*Father welcomes all his children
to his family through his Son;
Father giving his salvation,
life for ever has been won.*

Little children, come to me,
for my kingdom is of these;
Life and love I have to give,
mercy for you sin.

In the water, in the word
in his promise, be assured:
those who are baptized and believe shall be born again.

Let us daily die to sin,
Let us daily rise with him,
Walk in love of Christ our Lord,
Live in the peace of God.

Robin Mann 1949-

Offertory Hymn

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise:
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

O loving wisdom of our God,
when all was sin and shame,
a second Adam to the fight and to the rescue came.

O wisest love, that flesh and blood,
which did in Adam fail,
should strive afresh against the foe,
should strive and should prevail;

and that a higher gift than grace should flesh and blood refine.

God's presence and his very self,
and essence all-divine.

O generous love, that he who smote
in Man for man the foe,
the double agony in Man
for man should undergo,

and in the garden secretly,
and on the cross on high,
should teach his friends, and thus inspire
to suffer and to die.

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise:
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

John Henry Newman
1801-90 alt.

Final Hymn

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
in light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
almighty, victorious, your great name we praise.

Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light, nor wanting, nor wasting, but ruling in might;
your justice like mountains high soaring above,
your clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

You give life to all, Lord, to both great and small,
in all life now living, the true life of all;
we blossom and flourish as leaves on a tree,
then wither: but ever unchanged you will be.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light,
your angels adore you, all veiling their sight;
of all your rich graces this grace, Lord, impart —
take the veil from our faces, the veil from our heart.

All praise we would render: reveal to our sight
what hides you is only the splendour of light;
and so let your glory, Almighty, impart,
through Christ in the story, your Christ to the heart.

Waite Chalmers Smith
1824--1908 alt.

From the Dean's Desk:

The Marian Procession 2024 27th October 2024

The Marian Procession 2024 is just around the corner, and we are excited to highlight the Youth Pilgrimage as a key part of the event. This special pilgrimage offers young people a unique opportunity to deepen their faith, and connect with peers from diverse ecumenical and multicultural communities.

The Youth Pilgrimage is designed for young people who are eager to explore their faith in a supportive and engaging environment. Participants will join the larger Marian Procession, walking together in prayer and reflection. They will then have the opportunity to meet together using our hall to worship God through music, singing and spending time in prayer and learning about God.

As part of our participation, the parish community of St Saviour's has been asked if we can provide a BBQ for the young people. So we need YOUR help! We are looking for volunteers to assist with the BBQ. Whether you can help with setting up, BBQing, serving, or cleaning up, your support will be greatly appreciated.

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact write your name and contact details down on the a4 sheet of paper where you pick up your pew booklet. Your contribution will help make the Youth Pilgrimage and the Marian Procession a memorable and successful event for everyone involved.

Thank you!

Dean Gavin

Our Cathedral Prayer

Almighty God whose hand has guided and sustained your Church through many generations, accept our prayers for this Cathedral church, bless all who serve within its walls and strengthen the hands of those who seek to ensure its future. Make it a constant witness to your glory and a place of peace and joy: for the sake of your Son our Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer for St. George's Cathedral,

Our God, as you nurture the Body of Christ in different places, we ask your blessing for our sister church, St. George's in East Jerusalem. In these difficult times, may your Spirit sustain, guide and protect your people there. Bring peace to all as they witness to your presence. In Jesus' name. Amen .

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice, we pray for the people of Ukraine today. We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons. We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions. Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

Archbishop Justin Welby/Archbishop Stephen Cottrell

A Prayer for peace in Israel and Gaza

Heavenly Father, we pray for the many people whose lives have been torn apart by conflict in Gaza and Israel. We pray especially those who have died, those who are grieving, the injured and those now without food, shelter or medical supplies. Strengthen and support the work of all relief organisations. We pray also for those who have the power to bring peace. May they be touched by a spirit of compassion and kindness. Lord hear us as we pray in the power of your Spirit, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
